PRAYERS THIS WEEK

- We pray for those who are sick this morning, in the hospital or at home, maybe just the sniffles but also maybe cancer. Whatever the ailment Lord, you are the great healer, and we trust in you for all that we stand in need of.
- We give praise this morning for God's healing work. We are thankful for Derrek Noort's recent test that show all clear two years after his cancer diagnosis and surgery.
- We remember all those who are going through difficult times, whether the pain is physical, mental, emotional or relational. Life can be challenging but the Lord promises to never leave us nor forsake us.
- We continue to pray for Pastor Aaron Thompson and his family from Community Christian Reformed Church in Dixons Corners as He continues to struggle with health issues.
- We pray for our leaders across this nation and around the world as they continue to respond to the ongoing COVID crisis. We pray for wisdom and discernment as they navigate the many voices on both sides of the table.
- We pray for the protests in Ottawa and in other places across our nation. We pray for the protesters and the communities in which they are protesting. We pray for peace and love to win over division. We pray especially for those who are to stand in the gap between the two sides, we pray for police and other essential workers.
- We pray for all the unspoken prayers, the prayers that are beyond words or just too private to be shared. Lord remind us that there is nothing that is hidden from you, no prayer that is not worthy of your full attention, and no sin that you cannot forgive.

OFFERINGS

THIS WEEK: ReFrame Ministries (BTGMI)

ReFrame Ministries is the new name of Back to God Ministries International but that new name doesn't change the way that Mrs. Hiramani finds the Gospel in India or people around the world find Gospel materials. ReFrame also has materials for the Christian Reformed Church including the Today devotional, a devotional written by our denomination's pastors.

NEXT WEEK: MISSIONARIES KAREN & MOSES

We live and serve in a young, "Christian" country that struggles with many problems. There is corruption, poverty, twisted theologies, heretical teachings, and prosperity Gospel, poor education, poor health, social and political stress, adverse changes in weather patterns, ignorance, and, cultural changes due to technological advancement. We have a vision of seeing a generation of children and young people searching out Scripture and living their lives for and after Christ, fulfilling the Great Commission and transforming their communities with the whole impact of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We desire to see economically, physically, and spiritually oppressed lives and communities changing practically in the name of Jesus. Support our missionaries. Check out the blog.

After a brief hiatus, the desired goal is for these 3 Sunday ministries to resume once again in 2 weeks - Sunday February 27. Volunteers will soon be contacted by those who coordinate these ministries, and children and youth are cordially invited to participate once again. If you have any questions about nursery, contact Emma Harbers, and if you have any questions about Sunday School or Catechism, contact either Nicole Johnson, Erin VanGilst or Pastor Joe.

Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are you who hunger now, for you will be satisfied. Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh. Blessed are you when people hate you, when they exclude you and insult you and reject your name as evil, because of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, because great is your reward in heaven. For that is how their ancestors treated the prophets.

But woe to you who are rich, for you have already received your comfort. Woe to you who are well fed now, for you will go hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you will mourn and weep. Woe to you when everyone speaks well of you, for that is how their ancestors treated the false prophets.
