PRAYERS THIS WEEK

- We lift up the people of Ukraine due to the Russian invasion that is happening. May God's hand of justice and mercy be in this horrifying situation and may other nations work for peace and justice. We pray for all those who have been displaced by this act of war, may they find homes and security in the arms of their neighbours.
- We pray for Dean Howland and Alice as Dean was readmitted to the hospital after being released earlier in the week. Pray for healing for Dean and comfort for Alice. We also give praise that though we are far apart, we can be united in prayer and assured that even far from home they are surrounded by a great cloud of angels.
- We pray for those who are unable due to age or sickness to leave their homes. We pray for God's presence in their places and for friends and family who can visit.
- We give praise for the birth of Callen Clifford Theriault, firstborn son of Karina and Bryson and grandson to Rick and Margret Johnston
- We continue to pray for the Barr and Postma families as they mourn the loss of a loved one.
- We give thanks that as more and more health guidelines ease, we get a sense of normality in our lives. And we pray in that light, that as we begin to venture out again, we would be safe and have no fear.
- We give thanks that we can resume more ministries at our church so that our children can be blessed with additional teaching and encouragement from God's Word.

Pastor Joe is preaching at Immanuel CRC in Cornwall this morning fulfilling our church's classical appointment

COUNCIL REPORT FOR MARCH 2022

Council continues to meet every month despite the pandemic and the restrictions. At the meeting of March 8 they rejoiced since the elders and deacons could meet in person again. This was celebrated by singing together “What a Friend We Have in Jesus” and singing together for the first time in two years. Thanks to the generosity of the deacon leading in devotions, we also celebrated the event with pie and ice cream. The following is a summary of the discussions:

1. The Safe Church Committee of our church is an important group to protect the vulnerable in the congregation. If you are interested in serving on this committee, please contact Andrew De Jong.
2. Since the home deliveries of the Banner, the Today devotional and other inserts stopped last fall when restrictions on large groups were eased, all mail to members of the congregation has been placed in the church mailboxes, including the budget envelopes for 2022. If you are able to, please pick up this mail at the church or one of the elders will try to bring it to your home.
3. A slate of nominees for the position of deacon and elder was prepared. Those who were nominated will be contacted by one of the elders and are asked to prayerfully consider this calling.
4. A spring congregational meeting was tentatively scheduled for Tuesday, May 17. More details will follow after the next council meeting.
5. The delegates to the recent meeting of Classis Eastern Canada reported on the meeting. The human sexuality report was discussed at length and an overture will be sent to the synod of our denomination which meets in June. There are now two more vacant churches in our classis and Pastor Syd Ypma will begin his ministry in Kemptville CRC in the near future. Anjo Norg was chosen as the alternate deacon delegate to the June meeting of synod.
6. Both pastors reported on their ministries in the congregation. They are thrilled that mandates are being lifted and that there are no longer capacity limits. However, there is concern that many members have not yet returned to the Sunday morning worship services.
7. Please continue to pray for the leadership of our congregation and for all the members.
