PRAYERS THIS WEEK

- We pray for the family Elizabeth Geertsema who passed away peacefully this week. We remember all who mourn and trust in the saving work of Jesus.
- We pray for Alice and Jim Kooistra, Alice is home now from the hospital recovering and growing stronger. We thank God for the many prayers of His people and for His mercy in hearing them.
- We remember the family of Willy Harbers, brother of Alice Schuler, and for Gertie DeJong and the Oosterhof family who grieve the sudden passing of Codie DeJong.
- We lift up Mac Vandemheen who is recovering in Cornwall. For those looking to send Mac a get well card, they can be mailed to his home address and the family will ensure he receives them.
- We pray for all those families who are enjoying summer vacation. May they be safe and secure in God's loving hands and may they be refreshed by His spirit.
- We pray for leaders and Cadets attending this year's Cadet campout. We pray for safety and for a time of learning and growing in faith.
- We give thanks that the young Daniel DeKleer's bloodwork for the possible genetic disorder came back normal but continue to lift up this family as they seek to find answers for his recent behavioral regressions and anxieties

M2S has been serving seafarers for more than 50 years in the Port of Montreal and digitally around the world. During the pandemic we became an essential service when seafarers were stuck on board their vessels unable to go ashore. Our two chaplains have dedicated themselves to delivering essential supplies, doing money transfers, transporting seafarers for vaccinations, offering free devotional materials and being present to listen to seafarers who face challenges at sea and at home. In the past few months we have offered more resources to Ukrainian seafarers caught in the war.
