PRAYERS THIS WEEK

- We pray for all those affected by the severe weather in the east and in the south. We pray for support and resilience in the face of these natural disasters. We pray for relief and safety as the clean up and long road to recovery begins.
- We pray for those in our congregation who are ill, weak, or tiered. We pray for the Lord's strength and healing and for all that these brothers and sisters stand in need of.
- We pray for those recovering from an operation or a stay in the hospital, we pray for those in nursing homes or rehab centers. We pray for comfort and patience.
- We lament the violence in the news and the cause of such hatred in the world. We pray, come Lord Jesus, come. Turn our wailing into dancing; removed our sackcloth and clothed us with joy.
- We pray for all who mourn, be it recently or a long time ago, we pray the God of all comfort and compassion would give them a feeling of wholeness
- We pray for a great year for teachers and students, especially those starting at a new school. We pray that this year there would be no more closures and that our schools can once again thrive in fellowship and learning.
- We pray for those recovering from an operation or a stay in the hospital, in particular Tina DeJong who after having a successful knee surgery is also recovering at home from ulcers and pneumonia. We also pray for those in nursing homes or rehab centers, for comfort and patience.
